

Equipping Christians
to live out their unique
God-given purpose

Christian One-Percenters

A recent study reported that you need just $34,000 annual income to be among the wealthiest 1% in the world. By contrast, the world's median salary is $1,225.

The majority of believers worldwide make less than $34,000 a year. They are not One-Percenters in terms of wealth, but they do qualify as One-Percenters in a different category.

Only one percent of all Christians know their unique, God-given purpose. Unfortunately, 99 out of 100 believers don't know why God put them on earth. They don't know their unique calling.

This dismal statistic is the very reason Designed to Serve was founded. It's why we cry out, "Someone should do something!" And so we are.

Please don't go through life without knowing the unique assignment for which God created you. Be a Christian One-Percenter who not only knows, but is living out your calling.
